KNIFE BLADE IN HIS JAW

Man Had Carried Memento of Stabbing Episode Four Years.

WEST POINT, VA., February 2.—Mr. W. M. Bridges, a business man, of West Point, died this morning at the West Point Cottage. Mr. Bridges came to West Point a few years ago from Gloucester county, and about two weeks ago he was stricken with paralysis. Several months ago he had an additional $500 insurance put on his life to meet his funeral expenses. He seems to have had a horror of going under the ground and, while in possession of health, he expressed a desire to be put in a metal vault in the West Point Cemetery. His wishes will be carried out. His only sister, Miss Maria Bridges, from St. Paul, Minnesota, reached his bedside on Tuesday morning.

Knife Blade in Jaw.

A young colored man called at Dr. Clyde E. Rowe's office yesterday to have a piece of knifeblade taken from his jaw.

He was stabbed by another colored man when he was seventeen years old (four years ago). An attempt was made at that time to extricate the piece of broken blade, but the condition of the jaw prevented. On yesterday the man happened to come to town, and while here felt the point of the blade with his tongue. He went to the doctor, who with the aid of pinchers, extracted two inches of rusty knifeblade, and the man went off in joy.

Mr. George Major, of Baltimore, who has been in West Point several months, died this week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Hurt.

Mr. Delaware J. Smith sustained a painful injury a few days ago, while at work at Richmond Planning Mill, having been struck on the jaw by a piece of lumber.

Mr. Henry Christoph, of the farm "Cousins," in New Kent, who died recently in Williamsburg, was originally from Wisconsin. He had lived for several months with his uncle, Mr. Paul Christoph, who owned Cousins, and recently sold the farm to Mr. Strayler, of Wisconsin. Mr. Henry Christoph took charge of the farm for Mr. Strayler, and had begun farming operations. He was a pious young man, a member of the Methodist Church, and was appointed superintendent of the Sunday-school three days before his death. He died after a short illness.

Getting Good Prices.

In the upper part of the county farmers are very much encouraged in the prices they are getting for tobacco. Mr. T. D. White stands ahead of any one in his neighborhood. He sold this week at $15. for common and $21 for his best. Mr. Moran sold for $20 and Mr. William Reid sold for $20.

The York Club entertained a number of friends at the club-room Monday evening.

Policeman C. T. Roberts has bought the "Hill property" on Seventh Street, now occupied by Mr. B. B. Elkens. At a meeting of Fidelity Council, No. 58, J. O. U. A. M. held this week. Mr. Ralph Raynor was initiated into the mysteries of the order.

Messrs. Eddie Ball and George Post, of Newport News, attended the funeral of their aunt, Mrs. J. W. Pillsbury, and are still in town.

Mrs. Captain Tulle is very ill with fever.

Crosses of Honor.

Confederate veterans are urged by the West Point Chapter of the Daughters of the Confederacy to make applications by May 1st if they wish to obtain crosses of honor. All applications must be filed by May 1st. In order to have the crosses conferred June 3d, the day set apart by the United Daughters of the Confederacy in commemoration of the birth of ex-President Jefferson Davis.

The very old members of the past week have been felt very keenly by everybody. The people are willing, however, to endure it, so that this country people may be able to fill

Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that the trouble will disappear.

When a woman is troubled with pain or weight in loins, backache, swelling of the limbs or feet, swelling under the eyes, an uneasy, tired feeling in the region of the kidneys, she should lose no time in commencing treatment with

FREDERICK'S HALL SOCIAL

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

FREDERICK'S HALL, VA., February 2.—The "winter king" still holds a tight grip on old Louisa. After a heavy rain last night most of the snow has disappeared, but a heavy sleet is in evidence. Trees, telegraph and telephone wires are burdened with glittering ice. The crash of falling limbs in the forest is often heard. Telegraph and telephone service is much interrupted on this account.

Farming work is much retarded on account of the recent harsh weather, and is almost at a dead standstill, as little or nothing on farms can be done except feed the stock and try to keep warm. Almost all of the ice-houses are well filled with nice and pure ice. Recent snow has much improved the wheat and grass prospect in this section.

The stove plant being erected here by Messrs. Wood & Co. of Charlottesville, Va., is steadily going up, but the work has been much delayed on account of the recent severe cold weather.

Measles is following in the wake of the recent smallpox scare at this place. Mr. J. H. Crank has returned home from a business trip in Richmond, and Mrs. Thomas C. Garrett, after several days' sojourn in Richmond, is again at home.
